COOKIE POLICY

What are cookies?

Cookies are small files that store information on your computer, TV, mobile phone, or other device. They enable the entity that put the cookie on your device to recognise you across different websites, services, devices, and/or browsing sessions. Cookies serve many useful purposes. For example: Cookies can remember your sign-in credentials, so you do not have to enter those credentials each time you log on to a service. Cookies help third parties understand which services are the most popular because they help to see which pages and features visitors are accessing and how much time they are spending on the pages. Cookies help third parties provide you with relevant content and advertising by collecting information about your use of services and any other websites and apps you may use.

When you use a web browser to access the Services, you can configure your browser to accept all cookies, reject all cookies, or notify you when a cookie is sent. Each browser is different, so check the “Help” menu of your browser to learn how to change your cookie preferences. The operating system of your device may contain additional controls for cookies. Please note, however, that some services may be designed to work using cookies and that disabling cookies may affect your ability to use those services, or certain parts of them.

How we use cookies

We use Performance Cookies which enable us to analyse the performance and design of our website and detect errors. For example, this type of cookie allows us to recognise that you have visited our website before and shows which sections of our website are most popular by allowing us to see which pages visitors’ access most frequently and how much time visitors spend on each page. Your HR Support Ltd uses this data to determine the number of people using the site, to better understand how they find and use the web pages and to see your journey through the website. Although we record data such as your geographical location, device type, internet browser and operating system, none of this information personally identifies you to us.

Disabling cookies on your internet browser will stop us from tracking any part of your visit to pages within this website. Your HR Support Ltd does not use third party or persistent cookies.
